Alfons Schilling
Frühe Bilder

German, 55 pages, 20 × 26 cm, numerous illustrations in color, softcover
With an introduction by Felicitas Thun
Graphic design: Maria Anna Friedl, Alfons Schilling
Publication date: 2008

This catalogue illustrates the first two and a half years of Schilling’s artistic production. Impressed by Jackson Pollock and his drip-paintings he also became interested in show paintings by Mathieu and the music of the early 20th century. The influence and resonance of modern trends in Schilling's art become visible.
